

PILLAR ROOM

Rotunda
Hospital

Looking for a unique venue in the Heart of the City?

The Pillar Room Complex offers a unique experience in the centre of Dublin, set in the grounds of the Rotunda Hospital and adjacent to the Gate Theatre.

Built in 1785 and designed by Frederick Trench, the Complex has a seating capacity of 300 which forms part of the Rotunda Hospital's Teaching and Conference Centre. There are also two separate Meeting Room Suites available for hire. The Pillar room has a classic appearance with magnificent pillars running along the length of the ballroom. At one end, there is a raised balcony and the 20ft tall, highly-ornate ceiling is illuminated by three central chandeliers.

The Venue offers a unique character and charm and is steeped in history. The facility is adaptable and comfortably accommodates a wide range of functions such as:-

- Elegant Banquets
- Gala Dinners
- Wedding Receptions
- Dances & Tuition
- Conferences
- Award Ceremonies
- Corporate Receptions
- Press Launches,
- Christmas Parties and
- Theatre-based Receptions.

The Friends of the Rotunda is the official registered Charity (CHY0091) of the ROTUNDA HOSPITAL. All revenue generated from the hire of the complex is used to finance the Rotunda Hospital's Research Fund.

Security is provided and access to and from the Venue is via the Blue Gate at Parnell Square East Entrance.
